Fifth Sunday of Easter
7th May 2023

Songs that may be sung prior to the Mission Community Service from 10.45am at St Andrew's Ipplepen as a means of preparation

Jesus, be the centre

Be my source, be my light
Jesus

Jesus, be the centre
Be my hope, be my song
Jesus

Be the fire in my heart
Be the wind in these sails
Be the reason that I live
Jesus, Jesus

Jesus, be my vision
Be my path, be my guide
Jesus

Be the fire in my heart
Be the wind in these sails
Be the reason that I live
Jesus, Jesus

Amazing grace how sweet the sound

That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
This grace that brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home

When we've been here ten thousand years

Bright, shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun

Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

Over The Mountains And The Sea

Your River Runs With Love For Me
And I Will Open Up My Heart
And Let The Healer Set Me Free
I'm Happy To Be In The Truth
And I Will Daily Lift My Hands
For I Will Always Sing Of
Of When Your Love Came Down

I Could Sing Of Your Love Forever

Over The Mountains And The Sea
And Let The Healer Set Me Free
And I Will Daily Lift My Hands

I Could Sing Of Your Love Forever

Oh I Feel Like Dancing
It's Foolishness I Know
But When The World Has Seen The Light
They Will Dance With Joy
Like We're Dancing Now

I Could Sing Of Your Love Forever

To be in your presence

To sit at your feet
When your love surrounds me
And makes me complete

This is my desire, o Lord
This is my desire
This is my desire, o Lord

To rest in your presence
Not rushing away
To cherish each moment
Here i would stay

This is my desire, o Lord
This is my desire
This is my desire

This is my desire, o Lord
This is my desire
This is my desire

It's all about relationship: anointing, the coronation and us

At the heart of the Coronation service this weekend the Archbishop of Canterbury anoints The King with oil. This outward and visible anointing signifies an inward grace. Historically this practise can be traced back to the coronation of King Edgar by St Dunstan in 973 and has its roots in the Old Testament. For this coronation the oil came from the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem where the Kings grandmother Princes Alice of Battenberg is buried.

Here are some words from an article by Rowan Williams on anointing following the death of the late Queen Elizabeth II and what it signifies....

"Anointing—in baptism or ordination—signifies that someone is being given a new place in the community of God's people. It is not a job description, nor is it a blank check for power and privilege. It creates a relationship, with God and with the community of faith, and promises grace to make that relationship live and thrive.

The coronation servicesingles out someone (King Charles) to occupy a position whose point is to manifest something about the whole community's life—and to do so first by just being there, holding the ideals and aspirations of the community (and also carrying its projections).And this is what the royal anointing means at its most important level—a gift of the Holy Spirit to hold a fragile human person in faithfulness to this place where community can gather for restoration and renewal."

This Sunday during the Mission Community Holy Communion Service to Celebrate the Coronation at St Andrew's Ipplepen 11am we will be offering the opportunity to anointed with the oil of Chrim praying for the Holy Spirit to give us grace and enable us to fulfil our roles and relationships

Peace and good wishes

Andrew
