NOTICES

Points of Prayer: As situation in Gaza intensifies, we pray for those who are fearful, suffering hardship and mourning their loved ones and that their experiences do not lead them to lose hope that peace is possible. We pray that all world leaders with influence in the many conflicts around the world make wise decisions that allow all people to live in peace and unity.

Sunday 12th May, 5pm to 6.30pm

‘St Andrew’s Outside’, Ipplepen, in the St Andrew’s Church Field (starting at the slightly later time of 5pm). With guest beekeeper and honey tasting challenge, marshmallow toasting, food, craft activities and treasure hunt. A regular bi-monthly event taking place on the second Sunday every other month.

Monday 13th May, 6.30pm - 8pm

Study Group at St Andrew’s Church, Ipplepen, and then meeting every other week on an ongoing basis. This group will focus on study and fellowship with worship and prayer also being part of the sessions. Over time we plan to cover a wide range of topics from bible study, big questions of life and faith, how we think about God, how we live out our faith, traditions of the churchetc....etc....endless possibilities to help us in our discipleship and formation as followers of Christ. For the first session we will look at the readings that will have been read on the Sunday before (12th May) and discuss them and (pull apart!!!) the sermon for those who have heard one the day before.
