HOLY WEEK AND EASTER

It’s safe to say that Holy Week and Easter was a huge success for the Beacon Parishes with such positive feedback received from many. Huge thanks to everyone involved. See some of the lovely comments received below....

“Easter has been lovely and on a personal basis I can’t thank you all enough for the effort that was put in. It was all rather perfect.”

“I found Holy Week very special this year. Walking with Jesus to the cross via stations of the cross, travelling around the four churches during the triduum, each offering a different experience culminating with the glorious vigil. Thank you.”

"I want to thank you for Good Friday at Broadhempston. It was a really meaningful and memorable experience. Moving between the prayer stations with the time, space and peaceful atmosphere to reflect at a deep level was very helpful. With the additional help of the readings and the poetry, I was able to understand some things that I have always found problematic and have come away with a lot to think about. It was a profound experience for me, and I hope it was well received by others too."

“My thanks to Andrew, Alice and all their teams across the Beacon parishes for the amazing opportunities they worked so hard to sensitively provide in Holy Week for worship, contemplation, and a chance to quietly “regroup”. The week was made easily accessible and beautifully presented by Alice, organised and delivered by many voices and was the very best example of a church community. I wish I could have been part of all that was on offer. It was totally absorbing, and I felt spiritually strengthened.”
