June is wonderful month of flourishing in the natural world with so much new growth in our gardens and hedgerows. The churches in the Beacon Parishes (that is Ipplepen, Torbryan, Denbury, Broadhempston and Woodland) and Ipplepen Methodist Chapel are also in a season of wonderful growth and exploration with different types of services and other initiatives being offered and explored. Do keep your eyes open for what is on over the spring and summer.

Excitingly as part of all this growth we will be welcoming a new member of the team in the Beacon Parishes at the end of June. Diana Walters will be serving her curacy (a 2–3 year training post) with us, and we are very much look forward to welcoming her on Sunday 28th June at a special service at St Andrew’s Ipplepen at 11am followed by a lunch in the Church Hall. All Welcome.

Diana writes.... "I was brought up in a rectory and have a life-long love of liturgy and choral music. I live in Paignton with my Swedish husband, Göran, and our rescue dog. My passion is for social justice and peacebuilding. I'm currently a voluntary prison chaplain at HMP Channing’s Wood and will continue my ministry there as well as within the Beacon parishes. I have a PhD from Newcastle University, and I worked for several years in Higher Education in the UK and Sweden. I also work as a guide at the Centre for Action and Contemplation, New Mexico. I'll be ordained as a Deacon at Exeter Cathedral on Saturday June 27th, and am very excited to be joining you the following day".

Please do keep Diana in your thoughts and prayers as she prepares for this next chapter with us.
